Yesterday, Class 5B visited the heritage village near the old fort. A guide called Salim showed them how people lived long ago. First, the students saw a mud house and sat inside its cool rooms. Then they watched a man make bread on a fire, and everyone tasted it with honey. After that, Salim showed them a real dhow and told stories about sailors who travelled to Africa. The students asked many questions. Before they left, everyone wrote their name in the visitors' book. The bus ride back to school was full of happy talk about the past.
